

NETHERAGTE ACADEMY – MEMBERS OF THE ACADEMY ADVISORY COUNCIL

LESLEY ODELL - Chair of Academy Advisory Council

I am a retired teacher and worked mainly in mainstream primary schools. I also taught for 15 years in an all-age special school in Nottinghamshire, becoming Deputy Head for the last 7 years. I have been a governor at Nethergate since 2008 and this role enables me to continue my enthusiasm for education and seeing young people develop and succeed. I am also a member of the Greenwood Academies Trust Board.

I am married with 2 grown up sons and have 5 amazing grandchildren. My interests include, walking, yoga, socialising with friends and watching cricket at Trent Bridge.

NEVILLE BAILEY – Vice Chair of the Academy Advisory Council

My name is Neville Bailey. I have twin boys who attend Nethergate Academy. My interests are swimming, cycling, walking and photography. I have been part of the AAC for four years.

LORRAINE LEVELL

I have been with Nethergate since January 2003. I have a farm in a local village and have enjoyed visits from Nethergate pupils at lambing time and enjoy visits from the 6th form as I love helping them to learn about, mainly – sheep farming.

I volunteer with Riding for the Disabled two days per week and also am a volunteer with the Friary drop in centre for homeless and vulnerable people.

JAYNE FRANCIS-WARD

My name is Jayne Francis-Ward. I am a former Corporate Director of Resources at Nottinghamshire County Council. I am the Chair of EM Lawshare, a public/private sector legal consortium. I am also a Non-Executive Director of a Supported Housing Association. I am a keen, but slow runner and I love travelling. I have been a governor at Nethergate Academy for four years.

KRISTEL GEORGE

My name is Kristel George. I am the parent of a pupil at Nethergate Academy. I enjoy helping others, going on new adventures. I love animals and have a rabbit and a dog. I love being around children and seeing them having fun and singing.
