

Why is there no school today?

Today is a bit different because it is like a school holiday.

There is a virus and some people have been sick.

To stop more people being sick school is closed.

When everyone is better we will all be coming back to school.